POTATO BUGS LIKE PETUNIAS
LANSING, Mich.—By combining their flower garden with their potato patch, farmers may grow better crops of potatoes, Michigan State college entomologists believe. Potato bugs will leave the potato plant for a petunia plant any time, they explained. While many farmers would rather have petunias eaten by the bugs than their potato plants spraying is a more practical method, they advised.

TWO MORE BANK BILLS
STATE HOUSE—In two bills filed with House and Senate new regulations are asked to be imposed on banks in connection with salaries and bonuses paid officers, and concerning a minimum payment of interest.
Sen. Cavanaugh of Cambridge filed an order directing the bank commissioner to request all banks under his supervision to pay interest at not less than 3 per cent. Rep. Demeter of Boston urged a bill to compel banks to file annually a report of the names and salaries, commissions and bonuses in excess of $10,000 paid to officers.

Lovejoy Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Waters Lovejoy, who died at her home, 14 Fairview ave last Tuesday will be held at her late home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. Harold Dale of Billerica will officiate and burial will be in Lynnfield.
Mrs. Lovejoy was born in Lynn, the daughter of Ashley C. and Abbie Newhall, sixty-six years ago and lived in Arlington twenty-three years. She was the wife of William F. Lovejoy. Mrs. Lovejoy is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E. W. Pimm, of Billerica, Mrs. W. A. Batchelder, of Holden and Miss Mildred Lovejoy of this town, a sister, Mrs. Benjamin Foster of Lynn and four grandchildren, Miss Barbara W. and Ashley C. Pimm and Doris W. and Clark G. Batchelder, all of whom lived in Arlington. Mrs. Lovejoy also leaves a nephew, Dr. C. A. Bonner, superintendent of the Danvers State hospital.

Study Club Pres. Cleveland's Life

A meeting of the Kensington Park Study club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. J. Morse, 23 Lincoln st. The general topic of the meeting was Grover Cleveland. Mrs. W. H. Gleason read a paper on "The Man Four Square," including his early life to the time of his marriage. Mrs. F. D. Ennis gave the second paper, "A Study in Courage" in which she spoke of the principal events in his two administrations. A social hour followed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Car Stolen Week Ago Is Recovered

Stolen from Arlington Centre about a week ago, an automobile owned by J. James Sullivan, of Gloucester st was recovered near the Cambridge City Hall yesterday. The local police were immediately notified. The car disappeared while its owner was in Barry's Men's Shop near the railroad crossing and it was at first believed that it had been used by one of two young men who stole an auto in Belmont that same day, one of whom was captured in Arlington after the Belmont car crashed in a fence on Mystic st.

Town To Be Divided In Seven Districts—Four Or Five Teams In Each District—Supper At Wyman's Next Monday Evening To Start Campaign—Final Instructions To Be Given Then—Drive Will Last Five Days Only — Prominent Men Working

The annual drive for funds to carry on the Boy Scout movement in Arlington will start next Monday, January 15, when more than 175 men interested in keeping Scouting alive in this district will cover the town soliciting aid.

This drive in Arlington is a part of the council drive now being made in all the eight towns and cities under the jurisdiction of Sachem Council. Several of the other towns have already completed their drives with excellent results.

Seven Districts

The town has been divided into seven districts. Each district is in charge of a District Leader with 4 or 5 teams under him, each team consisting of a Captain and 5 or 6 workers.

The drive will be run on the intensive plan, all soliciting being done and the drive completed in five days.

Monday evening at 6 o'clock all the members of the drive will have supper at Wyman's, listen to last minute instructions from Kenneth Morse, Chairman of the Sachem Council Finance Committee and Russell P. Wise, Chairman of the Arlington Finance Committee. Bancroft Beatley, President of Simmons College and a member of the Sachem Council Executive Board will give a short "pep talk," after which the teams will be handed the cards of people they are to call on and will at once start their visits.

Men In Drive

These men make up the organization which will put on the drive:—Chairman, Russell P. Wise; Vice-Chairman, George B. C. Rugg; Leader of District 1, (Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4), William A. Burwell, Captains, A. L. Atkins, A. C. Woodward; Leader of District 2, (Precincts 5, 7), Harold A. Publicover, Captains, Henry Welsh, David Wade; Leader of District 3 (Precinct 6), John O. Matthews, Captains, Mortimer H. Wells, John K. McCormick, David Wilcox; Leader of District 4, (Precincts 2, 8), Herman Gammons, Captains, A. W. Platine, Ralph M. Simonds; Leader of District 5, (Precincts 11, 13), Chester R. Whitman, Captain, Leroy G. Shaw; Leader of District 6, (Precinct 9), John S. Crosby, Captains, Richard French, Ernest Hesseltine, Jr., Fred Miller; Leader of District 7, (Precincts 12, 14), J. Howard Hayes, Captains, George W. Greenlaw, Warren A. Bean, W. C. Adams.

Keefe Funeral Is Held Today

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine McBride Keefe, who died at her home, 20 Russell st last Tuesday was held today with burial in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Mrs. Keefe was 63 years old and lived in Arlington fifteen years. She came to this country from Ireland forty years ago. She was born in Ireland of Michael and Catherine (Morrissey) McBride. Mrs. Keefe died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Rotarians Hear About Orchestra

Appearing before the Arlington Rotary club at its weekly luncheon in Middlesex Sportsmen's Clubhouse yesterday noon, Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, director of music in local public schools, made an urgent plea for the support of the Arlington Community Orchestra in its first concert to be presented at Robbins town hall a week from next Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pierce praised Leonard Wood, young director of the orchestra and stated that twelve professional musicians who have played with leading symphonic groups in Boston have been loud in their praise of Mr. Wood's conducting. He is considered one of the most outstanding conductors among amateur symphony orchestras.

Following Miss Pierce's talk, the Rotarians enjoyed a motion picture on sports in the Canadian Rockies.

Six Departments Aid Arlington In Fighting $10,000 Blaze On Pleasant St—Defective Wiring In Laundry Probable Cause

Fire starting from what is said to have been defective wiring in the laundry, practically destroyed the old Hicks mansion, used as a boarding house, at 128 Pleasant st early last night.

Medford responded with Engine 2 on the second alarm.

Somerville, Belmont, Lexington and Cambridge also sent apparatus. The old Colonial-type French roof dwelling has been considered one of the most charming of its type in Arlington. Its upper portion was ruined and immense water damage was done the main house and the ell.

No Cut For Those Getting Less Than $15

At the insistence of the chairman of the board of public works—all town employees receiving less than $15.00 a week will not receive the ten percent cut which has been in effect since last March. This additional sum to these employees will only amount to $4,000 a year, but caused great suffering among their families. The meeting held last week of the Board of Public Works and finance committee finally agreed to keep the town employees at least as well off as the C. W. A. workers. Under the previous plan a man on the Welfare was much better off than a town employee who was trying to earn his living.

Mystery Of Lexington Skull Solved

The finding of the skull and leg bone in a ditch in the center of Lexington this week aroused much interest among townspeople. Until the mystery was solved there was much conjecture as to whose skull it was and numerous stories about gunmen and others were told.

It was ascertained that the skull and leg bone had been the property of the late Dr. Henry C. Valentine and had been tossed away when the house was cleaned after his death.

It had been planned to put a large gang of men at work in the section where the relics were found to ascertain if more bones were there.

"Spread Sunshine and Safety"

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray of Sunshine" into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway.

Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine column.

Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.

To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

GRANDMOTHER'S HOUSE

To Grandmother's—
Well that's a treat
For little girls and boys.
They know the way
To talk and play
And mingle with their joys.

Of course they do
For it is true
That children of their own
Were once caressed
And charmed and blessed
The atmosphere of home.

And when she came
Dear little Jane
From Medford, unafraid;
Grandma was glad Gave all she had
To please the cunning maid.

So day and night
This two year mite
Was happy, not a frown;
As others were
Up there with her
In distant Concord town.

As we were told
The bitter cold
Kept cute Miss Curtin there.
The days went on
And Mary, John,
Her parents, missed her care.

The cold wave spent
Back home she went
Poor Grandma then was sad
But reconciled
Knew as she smiled
Jane's parents would be glad.

—Sunshine Jerry.

ABOUT A CLUB RULE

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

I want to tell you about Rule 1 of the club. You said you would give tickets to the members who wrote something about the rules. Here goes:

Rule 1 of the club says: "Be kind and helpful to others."

It means don't do anything that would hurt the feelings of others but try to make them happy by doing kind things. It means that we should be willing to give our time to anything that means good cheer for others. We should also be willing to assist someone who needs help. I always do something for the club when it has some work to do. I went to both your canned goods parties for the Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets and I helped a little girl I knew at Christmas. I help at home, too, and run all errands for my mother. She says I am a great help.

I hope my story wins a theatre ticket.

An old member,
Barbara Thomas.

Your letter wins a ticket all right, Barbara. You are the first to write about a rule of the club since Daddy Sunshine made the offer last week. Some of his most interesting writers have failed to take advantage of the offer. Your explanation of the rule is excellent, and you deserve your reward. Daddy Sunshine will reserve the ticket for you. Call some day after school at his office.

PLENTY OF SNOW FOR SPORTS IN NEW ENGLAND

With a new fall of snow at some points, and plenty of the old supply in any case, winter sports conditions ranging from good to excellent were reported to the New England Council and made public today by Colonel William A. Barron, chairman of the Council's Recreational Development Committee.

Conditions were generally reported as better for skiing than for snowshoeing, although the latter was reported good at many points. Skating figured more largely in reports of good facilities than on previous weekends.

Plenty of snow and good conditions at Maine points were reported to the Council. Conditions for both snowshoeing and skiing were said to be good throughout New Hampshire. Brattleboro, Vt., had fair snowshoeing and good skiing, according to a report to the Boston and Maine Railroad. There are 20 inches of snow at Stowe, Vt., and conditions are good, the Council was told. Greenfield, Mass., had twelve inches of snow, with "conditions ideal for skiing, skating, tobogganing, and coasting," a message to the Council said.

Throughout New Hampshire road conditions and opportunities for winter touring were reported good. From West Ossipee came word of 18 inches of snow, nine inches of powder surface, with excellent skiing. Brookline, N. H., had plenty of snow, with surface slightly crusty. Excellent skating was reported at this point. Whitefield, N. H., reported "ideal skiing."

From the Waterville Valley in New Hampshire came word of two feet of snow, with four feet on the mountain slopes, and with a new supply falling. "Skiing and snowshoeing are good and roads are open here and throughout the state," said this message. Hanover, N. H., reported "plenty of snow, crusty; ski trails fast, skating good."

Jaffrey, N. H., offered seven inches of snow, "very fast skiing and snowshoeing and skating very good." From Goffs Falls, N. H., came word of good tobogganing and skating, and fair skiing and snowshoeing.

Reports to the Boston and Maine Railroad indicated good skiing in Canaan, Claremont, Laconia, Littleton, Newport, North Conway, Peterboro, Warren, and Wonalancet, N. H. Similar reports indicated good snowshoeing at Claremont, Laconia, Littleton, Newport, North Conway, Peterboro, and Warren.

FRANCE MAY BUILD MUSEUM TO FRANKLIN

There may yet be a memorial museum erected at Auray, France, in honor of Benjamin Franklin, where he landed in 1776 to enlist the support of Louis XVI's government for the cause of the American revolution.

The deputy-mayor of Auray, M. A. Kergrain, seeks to revive the movement started three years ago which apparently has fallen into abeyance. The original project was to buy the house on the Quay, facing the picturesque little port of Saint Goustan, in which Franklin passed his first night in France on December 3, 1776.

That, however, is no longer possible, as the house has been sold. But M. Kergrain proposes to install the museum in a small fourteenth century Breton Manor house, a building of great interest and good preservation, in the center of the city.

Support of the city of Auray, the department of Morbihan, the under-secretary of state for fine arts, and local associations, has been assured the movement.

The fact that Benjamin Franklin landed at this little Breton port has been completely forgotten until an American newspaperman, delving in the ancient archives of the French foreign office, stumbled across records of his arrival.

As a result the Auray city council in 1926 placed a memorial tablet recording the event on the house where he spent the first night and the American government presented the council with an engraving of Franklin, which now hangs in a place of honor in the city hall.

ANSWERS OPPONENTS OF GUARANTY FUND

Replying to a statement by a group of cooperative banks, whose officers have filed protest against the proposed new State legislation giving a guaranty to the safety of their shareholders' money, Raymond P. Harold of Fitchburg, president of the Massachusetts Cooperative Bank League says:

"The opposition to State-wide guaranty of cooperative bank shares expressed by a small group of cooperative banks does not represent the opinion of the majority of the banks, nor of the Massachusetts Cooperative Bank League. Of the 227 cooperative banks in Massachusetts, some 200 representing about 83 per cent of the total bank power, have expressed themselves in favor of the plan of guaranty proposed by the special legislative commission to study the banking structure.

"The wisdom and power to determine this issue rest with the General Court. A special commission, appointed by Governor Ely, President Fish of the Senate and Speaker Saltonstall of the House, has recently made an extensive report to the Legislature recommending State-wide guaranty plans, both for depositors in Massachusetts savings banks and for shareholders in cooperative banks. I am content to leave with the General Court, and its standing committee on banks and banking, headed by Senator Joseph R. Cotton, the decision of what is best for the 2,000,000 citizens of Massachusetts who have entrusted their savings to these two great systems of banks in an amount exceeding $2,500,000,000."

NEW EXAMS FOR TEACHERS MAY NOT BE NEEDED

Approximately 75 unemployed teachers, whose teaching certificates have already expired or will expire at the end of the present school year, may be spared from taking another examination to maintain their eligibility for appointment if the school committee votes to extend the certificates when the matter comes up for consideration.

The certificates are issued to graduates of Teachers College on graduation and holders are eligible for appointment to jobs in elementary schools over a six-year period, when the certificates expire. Previous to 1927 practically all graduates were placed. About 35 of the class of 1927 did not receive permanent appointments and their certificates expired during 1933. During 1934 the certificates of 40 more graduates, members of the class of 1928, will expire.

Who wants to be a MOTHER HUBBARD?

OLD MOTHER HUBBARD found her cupboard bare, but that isn't true of New England women if the experience of one large grocer in Boston is any guide.

This grocer reports that his customers purchased 30,000 more grocery articles last month than during the same month a year ago.

That means more orders for the factories, more wheels turning, more farm products consumed, more jobs. All of which lead to better times.

The perfect housekeeper has a well-stocked pantry shelf. Canned goods for example. The new packs are in, and many emergency shelf foods—always available in your home.

It's no longer clever to boast of having so little—money or things about the house. There's a surge of pride in the modern woman as she shows her well-stocked pantry—her new breakfast set—her new refrigerator—her newly painted bathroom, etc.

It's all in good taste to boast of helping recovery.

Heavy construction is being maintained at a high level by continual activity in the award of road contracts says Engineering News Record, and in the week ended November 20 the value of heavy contracts was $37,190,000, the second highest weekly total this year.

Bank clearings in leading American cities for the week ended November 22 showed an increase of 22.5 per cent over the same period of last year.

Wholesale prices during the week ended November 18 reacted a new high and were at the best level since August, 1931, according to the U. S. Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

Reports from more than 1500 J. C. Penney Co. stores for the first 10 days of November show that the company has enjoyed one of the greatest period increases in business of the year, volume continuing substantially ahead of last year. It was stated by Carl C. Sims, president of the company.

Three greater Boston firms have been awarded contracts for 755,000 yards of flannel shirting for the quartermaster's department of the U. S. Army.

Dollar sales of Continental Can Co. in the 4th quarter up to November 10 were 30% greater than in the same period last year.

SILVER AS MONEY

The Administration's recent remonetization of silver is a definite step toward solving problems that have been talked about for generations. It means immediate benefits to workers, investors and the public. This is especially true of the West, where American silver mines are located. The mining depression in many states has been more severe than the general depression. Thousands of jobs have been lost, a vast amount of purchasing power has disappeared, and one of the most important sources of governmental revenue has dried up. Revival of silver will help this condition.

As for the economic side of the move and its influence on monetary matters, only experience can supply the answer. But it has long been the opinion of many able economists and industrial leaders that, in this complicated modern world, gold is not enough. Proof of this is in the fact that cheap silver has destroyed the purchasing power of half the world's population, and has come close to destroying foreign trade.

The move, it is believed, will be followed by action in other countries. It is a great experiment, with almost limitless possibilities for achievement.

THE TAXATION MENACE

"Unless taxation is reduced, it cannot be very long before private property is destroyed entirely," said Dr. Milbank Johnson of the California Taxpayers' Association.

That is a thought which has been engaging a great many minds of late. Excessive taxation has closed factories and caused the loss of jobs. It causes people to lose their homes. In some states a large percentage of the farm land has been taken over by government for unpaid taxes—in others taxes are years in arrears.

Budget Director Lewis Johnson has pointed out that the United States Treasury will sustain another great deficit at the end of the 1934 fiscal year, and that additional appropriations can be met only by increased taxes. State tax rates are far above any normal figure. Many county and municipal governments are on the verge of bankruptcy, with tax rates established which local citizens are unable to pay.

The American people face no greater issue than taxation. Economical government means progress, jobs, good wages. Wasteful or overly developed government means continued depression, more unemployment, more distress.

A Sort of Circulating Medium, As It Were

By IRVIN S. COBB

THIS story has the merit of being applicable to these prohibition days although to the best of my knowledge it originated back in the wicked pre-Volsted days.

An auctioneer's man had been sent to a household to list its contents. Nothing of especial interest, either to himself or to others marked the course of his labors until he had progressed so far as the dining room. Here, following his routine, he proceeded to enumerate the furnishings in proper order, item by item.

In his following professional script he set down the tally in his book:
One mahogany dining room table.
Six mahogany dining chairs.
One mahogany sideboard.
One bottle Scotch whiskey, full.
Seemingly, then, ensued a period when the appraiser was otherwise engaged and made no entries whatsoever. Then, in a somewhat straggling and uncertain handwriting, he scratched out the last item and concluded his labors for the day with the following notations:
One bottle Scotch whiskey partially full.
One revolving Turkish rug.

Did You Ever Stop To Think

by Edson R. White

That in order to facilitate transportation, more attention should be paid to good roads.

Good roads solve the problems of making quick deliveries into local territory by the jobber and manufacturer.

Good roads bring the market closer to the small town merchant.

Many merchants lose business by not being able to get quick delivery of goods ordered from nearby wholesalers.

Good roads bring the market closer to the farmer.

Today most farmers are dependent on the roads to get their products of the farm to the market.

When the markets are good the roads are often bad and he can't get to market and get the advantage of higher prices.

When the markets are bad the roads are often good and necessitate dumping his products on the market at a loss.

Good roads help every citizen. Every Citizen Should Boost That Which Helps Him. Boost Good Roads!

TODAY'S RECIPE

Cranberry Pie

- 1 1-2 cups cranberries
- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1-2 cup sugar
- 1 tbsp. flour
- 1-2 cup water
- 1 1-2 cups saltinas
- 1-3 cup butter
- 1 tbsp. sugar

Wash cranberries and add raisins and 1-2 cup sugar mixed with the flour. Add water, stir and cook over low fire until syrup thickens. Sagamore C. E. Union Rally Woburn Church

Sagamore Christian Endeavor Union held an enthusiastic rally at the Woburn Congregational church on Tuesday, with an attendance of over 150 Endeavorers.

The supper was provided by the local society under direction of James Graham. Songs and cheers were a feature during the supper hour, which was in charge of Stanley Goodwin, Arlington district vice president.

The meeting opened about 7.30, President Ann Winning of Medford presiding, with a praise service led by James Graham of Woburn. Miss Ethel Reid of Woburn, prayer meeting superintendent, conducted the devotionals assisted by James Graham, James Fournier of Pinehurst, Mae Best of Woburn and Betty Hosmer of Montvale.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Harold V. Jensen, pastor of the Melrose Baptist church who brought a splendid challenging New Year's message entitled "The Church's Call to Youth."

Attendance awards were won as follows:

The Banner by Pinehurst Community church of Billerica.

The Shield by Arlington Heights Baptist church.

The presentation was made by Rev. Ralph Palmer, pastor-counselor of the Union.

Leroy S. Tucker of Medford hosted the union play, "Aunt Emma Sees It Through" which will be presented at the Mystic Congregational church, Medford, on Wednesday, Jan. 31. The cast, selected from various societies in the Union, is enjoying the rehearsals immensely, as it is one of the most amusing plays ever written. The committee in charge consists of chairman, Miss Beulah Desmond of Medford Hillside, Leroy S. Tucker and William Littlefield.

The rally closed with a snappy social hour conducted by Warren Fogg of Winchester, who has just recently been appointed Recreation superintendent for the union.

LOEW'S STATE THEATRE

"Fugitive Lovers," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer melodrama starring Robert Montgomery, which is now at Loew's State theatre brings an entirely new type of picture to the screen. Practically all of the action of the exciting story takes place on a great Greyhound bus bound west from New York City to Hollywood.

Supplementing the feature is a selected list of short subjects which include the latest Charley Chase Comedy, "Luncheon at 12"; a Warner Brothers Musical "Plain Crazy" and the latest issue of Hearst Metrotone News.

The stage attraction of unusual merit has Joseph Pope Jones, noted colored singer in a program of songs from "Dear Old Southland".

For Sunday five big acts of vaudeville are presented featuring the Loew's State Orchestra directed by Arthur Geissler, in addition to the regular screen attractions.

Bob Russell Wins In Tufts Eliminations

Wrestling eliminations at Tufts College started Monday night in the Cousens gymnasium. In the 118-pound class, champion, Gus Gillespie, felled Sidney Lutzen.

Benjamin Davies of Arlington, provided the surprise by gaining a time advantage over Dick Hingston in the 155-pound class. He will meet Bob Russell of Medford, who defeated Earl Balch in a close bout.

The rest of the elimination will be staged tonight and the winners will represent Tufts in the opening meet of the season, with Harvard at Cambridge on Friday.

Results in the freshmen wrestling elimination were:

126 pound class—G. Erng defeated A. Zamerlengo, time advantage 4 minutes 10 seconds; H. T. Collyer, defeated Vincent Campella, fall, 2 minutes, 37 seconds; T. Nahigian defeated S. Selbovitz, fall, 7 minutes 30 seconds.

135-pound class—L. Slate defeated I. Rossen, fall, 2 minutes 7 seconds; L. Pote defeated Tom Ridlon, fall, 6 minutes 20 seconds.

The feature match was provided in the 145 pound class in which T. Vachon felled B. Doran in 1 minute 32 seconds.

LOEW'S ORPHEUM THEATRE

"Dinner at Eight," with the most breath-taking aggregation of stars ever gathered together in the history of motion pictures, is having its first popular priced downtown showings at Loew's Orpheum theatre this week.

Here we have Marie Dressler as a flamboyant retired musical comedy star, John Barrymore as a "has been" matinee idol now penniless and on the verge of suicide, Wallace Berry as a vulgar but powerful millionaire who can wipe out his competitors with a jerk of the thumb, Jean Harlow as his cheating wife, Lionel Barrymore as a shipbuilder, facing business catastrophe, Lee Tracy as a Broadway theatrical agent, Edmund Lowe as a society doctor with a weakness for his feminine patients and others including Billie Burke, Madge Evans, Jean Hersholt, Karen Morley, May Robson and Phillips Holmes.

The big vaudeville show is headlined by June Carr and Harry Martin with Charlie Cooley in the highly entertaining musical comedy presentation entitled, "Yizzle See." The incomparable Arnaut Brothers, Rene and Jon, present a novelty comedy act in which they imitate the whistling of birds. Others on the bill are Leon Navara in a piano offering called "Moments of Interest", Georges & Jalna in "La Moderne Sophistesses" and Happy Harrison's Circus.

In "L'Affaire Stavisky" Probe

ALEXANDRE STAVISKY

ALBERT DALIMIER

CAMILLE CHAUTEUPS

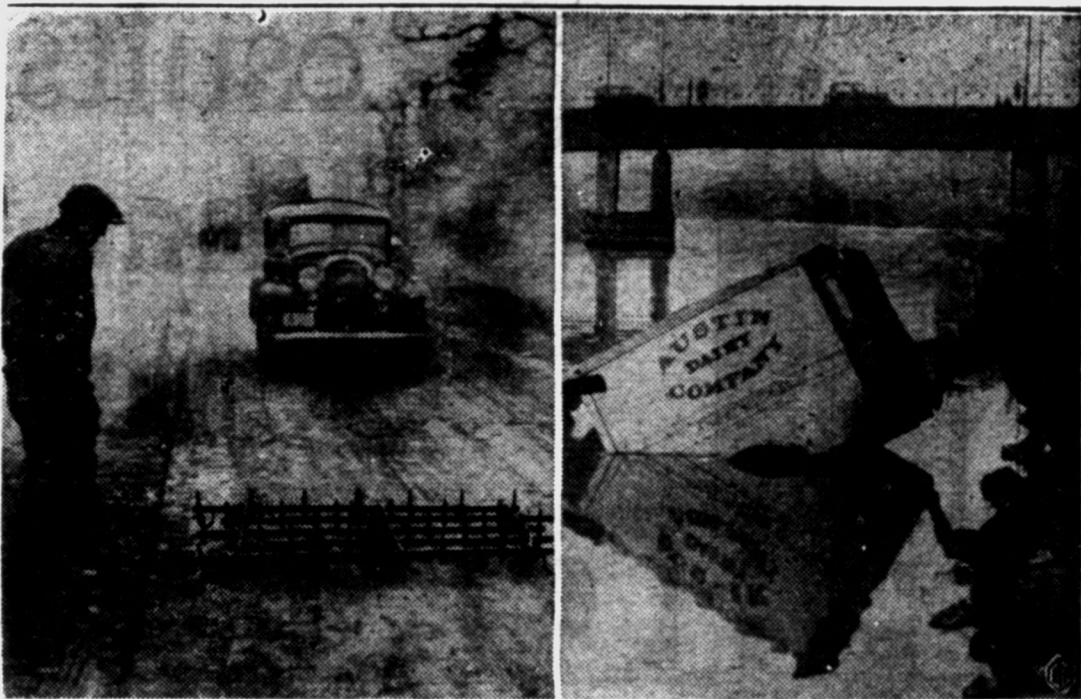

Boldly scoffing at the police assertion that Alexandre Stavisky, central figure in the gigantic Bayonne Pawnshop swindle, committed suicide, influential Parisian newspapers demand a full investigation of the case, known throughout France as "L'Affaire Stavisky." Already one Cabinet Minister, Albert Dalimier, Minister of Colonies, has resigned over his connection with the case, several newspaper editors are implicated and Joseph Garat, Mayor of Bayonne, is under arrest. What the French people want to know is how Stavisky, a native of Russia, known to the police as an inveterate swindler and forger, was allowed to operate for years, perpetrating frauds that will cause a loss of $31,000,000 to investors. High political influence is hinted and sensational disclosures predicted.

In "Motiveless Slaying"

Although, according to police, she readily confessed the crime, Mrs. Frances Sepale (left), of Reading, Pa., held in connection with the mysterious slaying of Dr. Paul R. Hess, Reading physician, refuses to disclose her motive for shooting the doctor to death as he emerged from his office. She will be placed under observation by alienists.

Scenes from Chicago's Milk Strike Front

Steel-toothed drags are placed on the highway near the Wisconsin-Illinois State line by milk strike pickets to discourage any attempt by trucks to run the blockade that shut off Chicago's milk supply. At right, one truck that attempted to crash through the picket lines finished up in the Chicago River. An emergency supply of milk was flown into Chicago by airplane after strikers had held up several trains.

Solo Honeymoon

The prospect of sailing alone on her honeymoon doesn't seem to dampen the spirits of Princess Alexis Mdivani, the former Barbara Hutton, Woolworth heiress. She is shown before leaving San Francisco for the Orient, while her Georgian hubby was obliged to sail from Seattle, in order to dodge California process servers.

Far from Gotham Politics

Just as he was the best-dressed man during his Mayoralty days in New York, Jimmy Walker seems to be the best-dressed sojourner at St. Moritz, Swiss winter resort. He and his bride, the former Betty Compton, are a happy-looking pair, as they swing over the snows bound for a day of skiing.

CWA PROJECTS END MAY 1, PWA TO ABSORB WORKERS

Termination of all civil works throughout the country May 1 at the latest is set by Harry L. Hopkins, federal administrator, at Washington. If possible, he said, it should be ended by mid-April.

Even with the projected appropriation by Congress of $350,000,000, the amount needed to continue the program to that date, Hopkins said the Civil Works Administration will be "out of business by May 1, and perhaps sooner."

Demobilization actually will begin on the first of next month in some sections of the deep South, where warm weather and the resumption of planting will solve the unemployment problem in part.

Hopkins is counting on increased employment in the regular public works activities to absorb many of the temporarily employed workers in his jurisdiction.

Others are nominally engaged in farm work which can carry them after their civil works jobs are over. Part-time workers on seasonal jobs also will be able to maintain themselves after May 1, it is hoped.

Termination of the civil works aid does not mean that federal relief will cease at that time, Hopkins emphasized. In the meanwhile he was studying results obtained to date. The civil works plan was adopted when it became apparent the regular public works program could not possibly expand in time to absorb any considerable part of the millions of unemployed workers.

One result of the temporary stop-gap employment under civil works, it was indicated, will be a group of workers much better physically to cope with their jobs when regular employment is available.

A survey of accidents among civil works employees, and of accident prevention, has convinced Hopkins that a large number of these employees were in poor condition physically, soft from enforced idleness, or inexperienced in the type of work they were doing.

A program of safety education is under way to offset mishaps, while the daily jobs the workers are on will condition them physically.

Senior-Junior Formal Dinner By Jacksonians

The senior and junior classes at Jackson, department for women at Tufts college, held a formal dinner in the Mount Vernon Room of the Hotel Commander in Cambridge last evening beginning at 6.30. Miss Mira B. Wilson, principal of Northfield Seminary, was the guest speaker. Kathryn G. Ecke, Brooklyn, N. Y., spoke for the seniors and Geraldine E. Minton, Swampscott, for the juniors. The guests of the classes were Dean Edith L. Bush, Dr. Florence Meredith, Mrs. C. H. Lovejoy and faculty residents: Vice-Dean Caroline M. Robinson, Miss Della Bishop, Miss Alice Borreson, Miss Reba L. Coe, Miss Ruth Tousey, Miss Grace Lincks, Miss Anna Mae Lewis, and Miss Gertrude Jackson.

This was the first junior-senior dinner in the history of Jackson. The idea was formulated by the presidents of the junior and senior classes for the purpose of a closer acquaintance between the two upper classes. Miss Willa E. Harris, South Dartmouth, president of the junior class, and Marion E. Glennie, North Andover, president of the senior class, were in charge of the arrangements. They were assisted by Eleanor Henrich, Greenfield, Barbara LeNoir, Greenwood, and Esther Odell, Salem, all of the junior class; and Dorothy L. Crockett, Springfield, Jane McNeill, Medford, and Rose M. Delaberta, Watertown, of the senior class. Musical selections were given by three members of the college string quartet.

Tufts Five Again Wins From Brown

Tufts College basketball team again defeated Brown University 37-33, in a closely fought game last evening at Providence, R. I. It was the second time this season the Brown and Blue defeated the Providence institution.

The local college quintet staged a great scoring surge in the second half after the first had ended in an 18-18 tie. Johnny Grinnell, former Medford High and Bridgeton Academy flash, scored 10 of his team's points in the first half. Jimmy Kavanaugh and Izzy Harris broke loose in the second half to hang up a total of seven floor goals.

Grinnell took high scoring honors for the game with 12 points. The summary:

CORP. KENIBBS POST U. S. W. V. INSTALLS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At a joint installation ceremony held Monday evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, officers of Corp. William Power Kenibbs Camp, U. S. W. V., and of the camp auxiliary, were inducted in the presence of a large gathering. Many of the camps and auxiliaries of Greater Boston were represented. State officials of both organizations were present, as well as town officials.

The officers of the camp were installed first, this being done by Past Department Commander Alexander D. Mitchell of Lowell, assisted by Col. Colby T. Kittredge as master of ceremonies.

The officers installed were Gen. Walter E. Lombard, C; Jeremiah J. Donahue, SVC; Bartholomew J. Deignan, JVC; Joseph E. Crowley, O of D; Edward B. Stone, O of G; James W. Denney, trustee; James W. Lowe, adjt; Ernest A. Sawyer, QM; Frank L. Zelck, PI; Alonzo F. Woodside, H; Sahag Arakelian, chaplain; W. Kennedy Mason, SM; Aleck Pearce, QS; Charles H. Brown, John Olsen, Frank L. White, color sergeants; Fred J. Clifford, M.

The members of the auxiliary were installed by Mrs. Elizabeth I. Priest, past department president, of Haverhill, who was assisted by the Blanche Parker Cadets of Lowell in work. This team gave an exhibition drill.

The officers installed were Mrs. Lena H. Smith, pres; Mrs. Julia Denney, SVP; Mrs. Minnetta Bowe, JVP; Mrs. Maud Swan, chaplain; Miss Viola Ganong, sec; Miss Marion Whalen, treas; Mrs. Jessie Fish, PI; Miss Katherine Whalen, H; Miss Ellen Swan, C; Mrs. Nellie Crowley, AC; Mrs. Nora Grady, G; Mrs. Jennie Floyd, AG; Miss Kathleen Whalen, M. and Mrs. Florence Post, reporter.

Following the exercises there were a number of presentations, the installing officers and their assistants each receiving gifts from the camp and auxiliary.

Speakers during the evening were Gen. Lombard, Alexander D. Mitchell, PDC; Past Department Pres. Elizabeth I. Priest, Mrs. Lena H. Smith, Colby T. Kittredge, PC; John W. Ford, SVP; Joseph E. Scott, DSVC; Fred Fallon, representing the Arlington Post, American Legion; Chester G. Williams of Arlington Post, V. F. W.; Mrs. Clara O. Powers of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Roscoe C. Young, president of the S. of U. V. auxiliary, and Mrs. Fannie Bridge of the Billerica V. F. W. auxiliary.

Every patriotic organization in the town was represented.

Fire Cuts Old Hicks Mansion

white mansion has long been an object of admiration more particularly because of its eight colonial columns across the front porch. The slated roof contains many dormer windows, and the fire, which was roaring through the upper floor of the house when discovered, burned fiercely in and around these openings.

Because of the way the roof is cut up, the blaze was a tough one to fight, and the large residence was literally covered with ladders and firemen. Flat roofs aided the firemen to secure a good footing for their battle, especially on the ell, which is a 2 1-2 story addition of later years and extends across the rear of the mansion.

Smoke Covers Center

Owned by Mrs. Ella H. Coleman, the building is located at Peabody rd and Pleasant st, and although two houses stand quite near it at the back, the wind was from the West and drew the dense clouds of smoke which settled down over Arlington Center, directly away from those neighboring homes.

All the occupants, some 15 in number, were having dinner across the street at 6.50 p. m., when Mrs. Mary Lewis, business manager for Mrs. Coleman, looked out the window and saw smoke issuing from the house. Fifteen minutes later the second alarm had been sounded.

Said to be Bolted Down

Known as the old Samuel T. Hicks mansion, the house was built many years ago by Mr. Hicks, who had formerly lived in Cuba. It rests on a granite foundation and is said to be bolted down so it could not blow away—a hint Mr. Hicks, according to legend, took from the method of building sometimes in vogue in Cuba to combat hurricane losses.

Mrs. Coleman, who owns much of the property in the immediate neighborhood, has been renting rooms in the old house. She also operates a boarding house across the street at 125 Pleasant st.

Among those made homeless by the fire and who lost practically all their personal belongings were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hubbard, Miss Grace Fettech, Miss Elizabeth Newton, Frank Preston, the Misses Bessie and Mary Johnson, a Mr. Perkins, a Miss Palmer, and several house servants.

Spectacular In Extreme

The fire was made more spectacular by the fact that at all times the house was vividly outlined in light and every move of the fire fighters was clearly visible. The lighting was accomplished from a special service truck which carries a dynamo and has numerous spotlights with thick cable on reels. These lights are taken to the roof, set up on the ground, or fixed to the truck so brilliant illumination is obtained.

The fire broke out repeatedly around the rear dormer windows, and firemen cut many holes in the roof, through which great tongues of flame poured into the night.

Falling slate cut a number of the fire fighters, and these men were attended to by a man working on a second emergency truck which carries everything from oxygen tanks to a respirator, great pump jacks, all sorts of small tools and equipment, and a radio receiving set.

This service truck is equipped with a four cylinder gasoline generator which gives power to a large spot light fixed to a sliding steel frame so it can be extended from either side of the truck.

This service truck and the mobile lighting plant were moved right into the yard of the burning mansion and attracted a great deal of interest from the immense crowd that encircled the scene.

First Two-Way Radio Test

Outside on Pleasant st a sedan with radio antenna and transmitting equipment was in constant touch with Arlington Police Headquarters throughout the night, and as this was the first time the new two-way radio had been put to practical use, its value was instantly demonstrated.

Almost before the crowds of motorists began to gather from surrounding cities, police had been called to block off Pleasant st, and stop traffic entirely past the burning house.

The allied fire departments did splendid work in stopping the fire when it did, for the entire roof was mushroomed by the flames and work was both spectacular and dangerous.

Defective Wiring

The Medford apparatus returned to its station late in the night, but the Arlington department worked all night.

Daniel B. Tierney, Arlington chief, directed the struggle to control the flames. The interior of the house was practically burned out. Defective wiring in the basement laundry, was believed to have caused the blaze.

Traffic was re-routed from Pleasant st, a thoroughfare between Arlington and Belmont, as more than a dozen pieces of apparatus lined the street. Firemen attempted to rescue some of the valuable antique furniture, but most of it was destroyed.

Mrs. Dodge Is Laid At Rest

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Eliza (Gooding) Dodge, late of 12 Windemere ave were held at the home this afternoon. Rev. Laurence Barber of the Orthodox Congregational Church and Rev. Mr. Gill officiated. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Mrs. Dodge died at her home last Tuesday at the age of sixty-nine. She had been a resident of Arlington for fifty years. She was born in Yarmouth, Maine of Albert and Eugenia (Drinkwater) Gooding. Mrs. Dodge was a member of the Arlington Woman's Club for many years. She was the widow of Henry D. Dodge and is survived by one son, Malcolm Dodge, well-known Arlington resident and a daughter, Mrs. Constance Lovejoy, of Rumford, Maine. Two grandchildren also survive.

Canadian Club To Have Old-Time Party And Play

Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, president, Mrs. Frederick S. Davis, treasurer, of State Federation, Mrs. David A. Westcott, president of City Federation, will be guests at an old fashioned party and play, under the direction of Mrs. W. Arnold Wry, assisted by Mrs. J. C. Nunn, Mrs. Helen K. MacCaffrey, Mrs. E. A. KEITH BOSTON THEATRE

Radio's comedy sensation and musical comedy star, Bert Lahr, is announced as headliner of a tremendous vaudeville bill for the Keith Boston theatre commencing Friday while the screen will feature "Let's Fall in Love".

Bert Lahr has been seen in many musical comedies in this city, and as a vaudeville headliner as well. He has made many movies, and in recent months has attained considerable of a reputation on the radio.

On the same vaudeville bill with Bert Lahr are Jerry Coe and Barry, "modernistic music and steps"; Hill and Hoffman; James Evans & Co.; and the California Revels.

The screen feature, "Let's Fall in Love" has a strong cast headed by Edmund Lowe, Miriam Jordan, Ann Sothern, Gregory Ratoff. It is a new musical film written by the popular team Arlen and Koehler, who wrote "Stormy Weather".

Music for "Let's Fall in Love" includes "Love Is Love Anywhere", "This Is Only the Beginning" and "Let's Fall in Love".

VAUDEVILLE STAR SEEN IN ARLINGTON RECENTLY KILLED IN CRASH

Arlington theatregoers saw a vaudeville team in action for the last time when Jack McCluskey and Kate Pullman appeared on the Regent stage here three weeks ago. Jack took his last curtain call Tuesday night in Ayer, Mass. He was killed when an auto he was driving collided with a truck at Gilson's Corner on the Ayer-Littleton rd.

Mrs. Pullman, partner of McCluskey in the vaudeville team of McCluskey and Pullman, and her son, Roscoe, 5 years old, were also injured. They were taken to the Community Memorial Hospital. The boy suffered head injuries and concussion of the brain, and his name is on the danger list. Mrs. Pullman suffered head injuries and a broken knuckle.

McCluskey's automobile was wrecked, and the truck, owned and operated by Harry Robidoux of 30 Pearl st, Keene, N. H., was forced off the road and also wrecked. Robidoux and Daniel Stone of Westmoreland, N. H., who was riding with him, said that McCluskey's car, which was coming in the opposite direction cut out of line to pass another machine and then sideswiped the truck.

McCluskey, Mrs. Pullman and the boy were on their way back to Boston from Montreal. After the last show here Saturday night they had left to open in Montreal the following Monday.

Heights Study Club Meets

The January 9th meeting of the Arlington Heights Study Club was held at Hamburg hall. In the business meeting, Mrs. George Parker gave a report of the most recent Club Institute at the Boston Y. W. C. A., and as chairman of the Scholarship Bridge which is to be held on the afternoon of Tuesday, Jan. 23 at the Park Avenue Parish House of the Congregational Church, asked the help of the Club members in the sale of tickets.

Mrs. Arthur Covell spoke briefly of the English Gothic Cathedrals of Canterbury and Durham and then gave a vivid description of the Cathedral of Ely, its Norman and early English facade, its fan vaulting and its lantern tower, unique in the world of architecture.

Louise Lester accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Horace Lester, played two flute solos—Handel's Largo and a Minuet by Bizet.

Mrs. Cyrus Dallin related the story of St. Ursula, the Saxon maid, who became a martyr for her faith in Cologne.

Mrs. David Dill spoke on German Gothic, using as an example the Cathedral of Cologne which possesses the famous relics, the bones of the Magi. She described its beautiful south facade; its towers, the loftiest in Europe; its great bell and wonderful windows. As further examples of German Gothic, Mrs. Dill spoke of the town hall or Rathaus of Cologne and Goslar. Both talks were illustrated by very lovely pictures from the Boston Art Museum and were of especial interest because both ladies had visited the places which they described.

Tea was served by the Hospitality Committee assisted by Mrs. Verne Q. Powell and Mrs. J. P. Walstead.

May Accept Five Streets This Year

Another step toward the accepting of five new streets was taken by the joint-board this week in calling a hearing for Tuesday evening, January 23 on accepting Bailey road, Glen avenue, Birch street, Phillips street and Gloucester street.

The hearing will be held in the Robbins town hall before the joint-board comprising the selectmen and public works board. The board has announced its intentions to lay out these streets which are now private ways.

Christian Science Director Resigns

After a service of fifteen years on the Christian Science Board of Directors of The Mother Church in Boston, Mrs. Annie M. Knott has resigned in order as she states to have leisure to gain still more of the spirit of this Science and aid others to do the same in larger measure.

For fifteen years prior to serving on the Board Mrs. Knott had served the Mother Church as an associate editor of the Christian Science periodicals and as a member of the Bible Lesson Committee, and she had been for many years before that an active Christian Scientist.

To succeed her the Board of Directors have appointed Mrs. Nelvia E. Ritchie, formerly field representative of The Christian Science Publishing Society in Boston, in which capacity she addressed branch churches throughout the United States, Canada, Cuba, the British Isles, and the continent of Europe, afterward serving for several years on The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.
